THE OLD SCHOOL HOUSE

A RARE CHANCE TO BE A PART OF CHESHIRE'S HERITAGE

Torus Homes are proud to bring the one-of-a-kind development of The Old School House to the market. Built in 1902 and formerly the King's School for Girls, this beautiful building has been restored and thoughtfully re-imagined as an exquisite collection of bespoke contemporary apartments retaining the authentic ambience of its history.

Whilst maintaining all the original Edwardian design elements of the exterior, the interiors have been designed to appeal to all tastes and budgets. No two apartments are alike and cater to all preferences and lifestyles- whether you opt for open plan living or a separate kitchen and living room, a duplex with the main living accommodation above the bedrooms or vice versa, The Old School House offers a large selection of architectural configurations designed for a whole range of modern lifestyles.

URBAN LIVING AT THE PEAK DISTRICT BORDER

With style and elegance at the heart of their design, each apartment is built to be as energy efficient as possible, with allocated parking spaces for every apartment and a ten year warranty to put your mind at ease.

Buying into The Old School House means becoming an integral part of a new, eclectic community. The range of accommodation offered will suit first time buyers, professional couples, growing families and anyone looking to relocate from the maelstrom of city centre living to a more relaxed lifestyle.

A LOCATION WITH SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

Neighbouring the exclusive Kings Park Development, The Old School House occupies an enviable position in Macclesfield, overlooking Victoria Park. A ten minute stroll across park provides easy access to Macclesfield town centre and its shops, bars and restaurants.

Bordering the Peak District with excellent transport links to Stockport and Manchester City Centre, The Old School House offers luxury accommodation with a full range of urban and rural amenities on its doorstep.

Macclesfield, a beautiful historic market town dating back to 1261 when the town was granted a charter by Edward the First, occupies an enviable position along the River Bolin, the edge of the rolling Cheshire Plain to the west and the Peak District National Park to the east. Living here is opportunity to explore breathtaking countryside, rivers, canals, reservoirs and woodland, all within easy reach via scenic country drives.

Complementing its beautiful rural setting, the history of the town is prominent in its cobbled streets and architecture, including Macclesfield Castle, the Town Hall and the Heritage Centre. Macclesfield became a silk-manufacturing centre from the mid-18th century and was also home to Hovis breadmakers at Publicity Works Mill (commonly referred to as “the Hovis Mill”) on the canal close to Buxton Road.

HISTORY WITH COMMUNITY AT ITS HEART

Today, Macclesfield draws visitors from surrounding areas for its wealth of festivals and cultural events such as Macclesfield Festival, Macc Pride, Rewind North, Macclesfield Beer Festival.

Every last Sunday of the month the cobbled streets of Macclesfield Marketplace play host to the artisan Treacle Market, named after an incident in Medieval times when a horse-drawn wagon overturned and spilt its load of treacle onto the street, providing fabled respite to the poor, who joyously scooped the treacle off the road.

The Treacle Market is one of the largest Artisan Markets in the North West, celebrating its 14th year in Summer 2024. It offers over 140 stalls of exceptional quirky unique artworks, antiques, books, vintage finds, delicious food & drink and stalls hosted by many local community groups.

As well as the expected choice of pubs, bars and restaurants in the town centre, there is also a wide selection of traditional country pubs located around the rural outskirts of the town.

In Macclesfield you'll be spoilt for choice regarding sports and culture, with many special interest groups thriving in the community, including Chess, Running, Cycling, Hockey and Football, with Macclesfield Town FC gaining league status in 1997.

The Heritage Centre houses a small-scale cinema and art-house, and there is a thriving amateur dramatics scene, with productions at the Heritage Centre, the Evans Theatre in Wilmslow and the MADS Theatre on Lord Street. Gawsworth Hall hosts an annual Shakespeare festival as well as many arts and music events throughout the year.
